

I feel it is necessary to retain the no call provisions in Indiana's law. My family and I have enjoyed relative privacy and freedom since the no call provision was enacted. I would hate to see that situation disappear and have to return to the way things were before. Both my husband and I have health problems and sometimes it is difficult for us to get up just to answer nuisance calls. Thank You.